

Meet the Crew... for a day out to talk about

"I was enthralled...as were many of my neighbours who came on the coach" Visitor Feedback

"I was very impressed with the staff and organisation" Steve Hornby, Success Tours

For a day out to talk about, a group visit to the Royal Navy Submarine Museum is a must. Walk through HMS Alliance with one of our ex- submariner guides to hear their stories about living beneath the waves.

Only 10 people are required to make up a group, saving 20% on our standard prices at any time of the year.
